

Brian Schulz, CFA

Vice President and Analyst

Profile

Brian Schulz is Vice President and Analyst covering the financial services industry. He joined Alger in July 2004. Previously, Brian was Research Associate at Credit Suisse First Boston covering mid-cap banks. He has more than six years of investment experience. Brian graduated with an A.B. with honors in Economics from Harvard University and is also a CFA charterholder. While at Harvard, Brian was the director of the sports department at Harvard Radio Broadcasting working on business development and broadcasting; he was responsible for implementing the nation's first regular radio coverage of women's ice hockey.

Fred Alger Management, Inc.

- Independently owned since its founding in 1964
- Focuses on growth companies in all market capitalizations and sectors
- Bases internal research process on original, fundamental analysis
- Serves as the investment manager for The Alger Funds, The Alger American Fund, The Alger Institutional Funds, The Spectra Funds, Castle Convertible Fund, Inc., and The China-U.S. Growth Fund; as well as numerous corporate pension and retirement plans, state and local governments, endowments, foundations, and insurance companies

Before investing, carefully consider the Funds' investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses. For a prospectus containing this and other information about the Funds, call (800) 992-3863, or visit www.alger.com. Read it carefully before investing. Distributor: Fred Alger & Company, Incorporated. Member NYSE, SIPC.

NOT FDIC INSURED. NOT BANK GUARANTEED. MAY LOSE VALUE.

ALGER |

Fred Alger Management, Inc.

111 Fifth Avenue
New York, NY 10003

www.alger.com