

/ Meet the team

Christopher Conte, CFA®VICE PRESIDENT MARKETING

Chris Conte is Vice President of Marketing. He joined Alger in 2022 and has 11 years of experience. He is responsible for developing marketing content spanning macroeconomic trends, disruptive innovation, and industry-specific narratives, and is the co-author of the firm's weekly publication, Alger On the Money. Before joining Alger, Chris was Marketing and Client Services Assistant Vice President at TimesSquare Capital Management, where he supported portfolio analysis and client communications. Prior to that, he was an Institutional Client Data Analyst and Product Strategy Instructor at Lord Abbett & Co. Chris earned his B.S. from the University of Richmond, is a CFA charterholder, and a member of the CFA Institute. He also holds the securities registrations for Series 7 and 63.

ABOUT ALGER

Founded in 1964, Alger is recognized as a pioneer of growth-style investment management. Privately-owned and headquartered in New York City, Alger can help “Unlock Your Growth Potential” through a suite of growth equity separate accounts, mutual funds, ETFs, and privately offered investment vehicles. Alger’s investment philosophy, discovering companies undergoing Positive Dynamic Change, has been in place for 60 years.

Unlock Your Growth Potential.SM