John Carbone

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT
INSTITUTIONAL SALES & SERVICE

John Carbone is Senior Vice President in Institutional Sales & Service. He joined Alger in 2015 and has 25 years of experience. At Alger, John focuses on growing sales and managing ongoing institutional relationships. He, along with the existing institutional team, is responsible for fostering new relationships and increasing market presence in the institutional, consultant, and certain retirement and bank trust markets. Before joining Alger, John worked at BNY Mellon Investment Management, where he grew revenue through direct sales to corporate retirement plan sponsors on the East Coast. Prior to BNY Mellon, John held senior institutional sales roles at The Hartford and Mellon Financial. Additionally, John coordinated benefit administration delivery and client servicing at Hewitt Associates. His previous experience includes working in Institutional Sales at The Hartford, Human Resources and Investor Solutions at Mellon Financial, and client servicing and project management at Hewitt Associates. John earned a B.S. from Providence College. He also holds securities registrations for Series 3, 6, 7, 24, and 63.

About Alger

Founded in 1964, Alger is widely recognized as a pioneer of growth-style investment management. Headquartered in New York City with affiliate offices in Boston and London, Alger provides U.S. and non-U.S. institutional investors and financial advisors access to a suite of growth equity separate accounts, mutual funds, and privately offered investment vehicles. The firm's investment philosophy, discovering companies undergoing Positive Dynamic Change, has been in place for over 50 years. Weatherbie Capital, LLC, a Boston-based investment adviser specializing in small and mid-cap growth equity investing, is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Alger.
